DIRECTOR: WHITE HOUSE SITUATION ROOM

25X1

SUBJECT: CAMBODIA--THE MILITARY SITUATION

The remnants of the Oudong garrison abandoned their positions on the town's outskirts early on March 28 after Khmer Communist gunfire set off ammunition stocks. The troops and several thousand civilians are working their way toward the eight-battalion Cambodian Army force just east of Oudong.

Ground action at Kampot City in the southwest subsided yesterday, but picked up overnight. Forward government positions continue to be hit by steady shellings.
